

Hawk, Joe at Wimbledon Saturday

Westmead Hawk, the dual Derby champion who broke a hock just weeks after his sensational performance in the 2006 premier Classic decider, returns to Wimbledon, scene of his greatest triumphs, on Saturday, writes Richard Birch.

Nick Savva, trainer of Westmead Hawk, plans to enter his kennel star for a Blue Square Derby trial stakes event, along with Westmead Joe, who finished fourth to his kennelmate last year.

Westmead Hawk, runner-up in two Monmore races since making a return to competitive action this spring, will be given two runs at Wimbledon before Savva makes a final decision on whether to commit the dog to a third successive Derby campaign and an attempt to make history. No greyhound has ever won three Derbies.

Latest Blue Square betting: 6 Fear Haribo, 8 Droopys Robinho, 12 Westmead Joe, 14 Phoenix Paddy, Express Ego, 20 Geordie Parker, 25 Droopys Electric, Westmead Hawk, 33 Gilbeyhall Josh, Groovy Stan, Jaxerback, 40 Farloe Jester, Blonde Dino, Zigzag Dutchy, 50 bar